LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

These are some reasons I belong to the Johnson Co. Historical Society:

I was born in Johnson Co., but left there when I was a child.

My ancestors; the Dickersons, Hills, Jones's, and Hunters were early settlers of that area and are buried there.

I've always been interested in history and I'd like to know more about Johnson Co., and its people, especially my own ancestors.

Had I 'written down' the things my grandma Dickerson used to tell us when I was a kid, I could have had some very interesting stories. Their suffering during the Civil War, especially at the hands of the Bushwackers, was very vivid to her 'til the end of her life.

We need to collect and preserve history and the County Historical Societies are one of the best ways to do this, I believe. We've already let too much history 'go to the grave' with the people who lived it.

I cannot attend the meetings but I look forward to getting the Journals.

Yours truly,

Iris Ford

Enclosed is a very poor copy of a church covenant. There are pages of articles of faith, Rules of Decorum, etc.

I don't know the name or location of the church, possibly in the Patterson Springs area.

The J. B. Hunter and Mary Hunter were my mother's parents. He died in 1884 so the document, possibly, is over 100 years old. Just thought you might like to see it.

CHURCH COVENANT

In as much as God has been pleased to call us (by His Grace out of darkness into His marvelous light and we having been baptized upon a profession of our faith in Jesus Christ) we have given ourselves to the Lord and to one another by the will of the Lord in a church covenant to be governed by a proper discipline according to the word of God do therefore covenant to keep up the discipline of the Church of which are members in brotherly love toward each other while we endeavor to pray for, watch over, and if need be reprove each other according to the instruction given by our Saviour and not to be back biting each other and we also agree to pray in our families, attend our church meetings, observe the Lords day, celebrate the Lords supper, contribute according to our several abilities to the support of the pastor and other church expenses, and not to leave the church irregularly.

These things we covenant, in the name of the Holy Trinity Amen.

SOME REQUESTS AND SUGGESTIONS FROM THE EDITOR

There are a few requests the Editor would like to make in regard to the submission of articles and charts for publication in the Journal.

1. Please use a page out of an old Journal as an example of page margins.
2. Please use a carbon ribbon or the newest, blackest cloth ribbon you can possibly get.
3. In Ancestor Charts, please use the most widely accepted form of writing dates:

as follows:

Day, month, year - 31 March 1982 (spell out the month)

There is always a chance that a mistake will be made if any other method is used, some people write dates as follows:

2-3-82, now I would assume that that is Feb 3, 1982, but it could also mean
2 March 1982. I have received dates written 31-12-82, now I would know that it must be Dec 31, but if the numbers are less than 31 or 12, how can I be sure which method you use, I'll just pick one and it may be wrong.
